국제정치학

2006년 시행 외무고등고시(영어능통자) 제2차시험

응시번호 :　　성명 :

제 1 문. One of the leading theories on international relations is the balance of power theory. Answer the following questions that relate to the usefulness of this theory in explaining today's international relations. (total 40 points)

1) Explain two basic means used to achieve the balance of power. (10 points)
2) List seven powers in today's world and predict, in accordance with the balance of power theory, the directions in which the relations among these powers will evolve from what they are today. (15 points)
3) Critically discuss the balance of power theory in view of relevant competing theories. (15 points)

제 2 문. In general, arms control and disarmament are known as primary methods to reduce the military tension and to promote the peaceful cooperation among the states. Explain the historical backgrounds in which the two notions emerged, their conceptual differences, and policy implications. (30 points)

제 3 문. Despite strong opposition from some groups, the government of South Korea signed free trade agreements (FTAs) with Chile and Singapore and recently embarked on negotiating another with the United States. It also seeks FTAs with Japan, China, and several other countries. (total 30 points)

1) Introduce the conflicting claims of the advocates and opponents of the FTA, and (10 points)
2) Evaluate the relative merits of these claims, drawing upon relevant theories of international political economy. (20 points)

중앙인사위원회 출제관리과장